

RESULTS OF 2015 ELECTION

Elections were held November 3, 2015 for the position of mayor and two commissioner seats for the Kure Beach Town Council. The mayor serves a two year term and commissioners serve four year terms.

Election results were as follows:

- Incumbent Commissioner Emilie Swearingen won the mayoral seat. Incumbent Mayor Dean Lambeth ran against her.
- Incumbent Commissioner David Heglar was re-elected to a commissioner seat.
- Candidate Joseph Whitley was elected to a commissioner seat. Mr. Whitley has served on the Town's Planning & Zoning Commission since October 2011.

On December 10, 2015, they will take their oaths of office.

Other changes on Council were that Commissioner Steve Pagley resigned effective November 9, 2015 due to re-locating outside of Kure Beach for his work.
