Old Business

Town News

Since Chief Cooper has retired Kure Beach has hired Michael Bowden to replace him.

The architects for the town feasibility plan have been narrowed down to two firms. The town is looking at what is a reasonable cost for these projects and to prepare for future needs.

The vision meetings are ongoing as all committees are active and generating ideas.

Rental Updates

There are several additional rentals. The RockNRoll Chorus is coming to the Ocean Front Park on July 24th.

The Red Cross Blood Drive is being held the day before the barbeque. Nikki is looking for additional volunteers to help with the drive. Nikki will supervise set up for the barbeque after the blood drive.

The 70th anniversary of the founding of Kure Beach will be held the same day as the street festival in April 2017.

Watering Plants

Most of the plants are healthy and thriving. Jeannie and Harriet have volunteered to water from July into mid August. Weeding this area needs to be ongoing and members are asked to help with this as they see the need.

Barbeque

The barbeque is set for August 20. Last year 310 plates were sold. As there has been an annual increase in the number of plates sold the committee decided to purchase 120 pounds of barbeque to cover the anticipated additional plates.

The committee divided up the remaining jobs and purchases needed. All members are requested to bring plastic bags to the next meeting for the takeout plates. The utensils and napkins will be wrapped at the August meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:10am.
