Old Business

- a. Adopt-a- Beach Update- Pat T reported Beach looking good- people cleaning whether signed up to do so or not
- b. Signage update
 - Town has additional “Keep off the Dunes” signs to be deployed at the Southern part of the town beach.
 - New entry signs will be developed for accesses not covered by last year’s sign deployment. Chairman looking onto changing shape of signs to avoid possible additional costs from CAMA to deploy. Instead of 6 by 6 looking to use 4 by 4. Signs a little thinner and taller. Looking into possible issues with DOT since these signs will most likely be part of right of way
 - Sponsorship of the signs was discussed. Ed presented a revised sign rental procedure. Discussion was held on when to sell sign space. Felt late fall may be the best time.
- c. Revised SLAP Brochure
 - Tabled until September Meeting
- d. Kure Beach Ocean Life Project
 - Pat T updated the status of the KB Ocean Life Project. Bill had revised Goals and Objectives for a separate program. Pat T indicated she had 9 Ambassadors signed up.

New Business

- Request made by Concerned Veterans 4 America to sponsor a Kure Beach Clean Up tabled until September Meeting at the request of the CV4A

- Committee voted 9 to 0 to support the Towns position on no allowing dogs on the beach during the Summer Season

Meeting was adjourned at 5:42PM

Respectfully submitted
