Meeting was called to order by Chairman Panicali at 5:08PM via teleconference.

Minutes from March Meeting were approved unanimously.

Public Input

none

Member Resignation

Lisa Leppo resigned from the committee. There is an older application from someone who submitted when there was last a vacancy that will be distributed for review

Old Business

Adopt a Beach Website

- First Volunteers signed up and they took the area by the pier
- Nikki is going to do some advertising

Sponsorship Signs

- Needs to be presented to town for final approval
- Ed will talk to Nikki about when would be a good time

KB Ocean Life Project

- No recruitment happening as there will be no events in summer 2020
- There may be some offseason planning/training sessions depending on current affairs

Access Signs

- Southern Signs replaced the damaged signs and Public Works have installed
- Thank you signs on Oceanside have been installed

New Business

-Garbage Can at 814 N. Fort Fisher access is missing, as well as cigarette butt receptacle. They were there last year.

-Could be a Public Works issue, but old notes/recollections might show that these were installed at the cost of the HOA (Kure-by-the-Sea in this case).

Meeting was adjourned at 5:34PM

Next Meeting – 8/4/2020 via teleconference

Respectfully submitted
Ed White - Secretary
