

TOWN COUNCIL ACTIONS

Regular Meeting
August 19 and 21, 2014

COUNCIL/LEGAL

- Council requested that the following meet during the September Planning and Zoning Commission meeting to talk about developing an ordinance regarding parking along Highway 421 in Kure Beach:
 - Planning and Zoning (P&Z) Commission with guidance from consulting attorney, James Eldridge
 - Al Woodall, a resident of Ocean Dunes in Kure Beach
 - Police Chief Dennis Cooper
 - SLABP&P Chairperson, Tony Gonsalves
 - DOT Representative Brandon PowersMr. Woodall will contact Mr. Powers to attend, and Mayor Pro Tem Bloszinsky will notify P&Z.

FINANCE/BUDGET

- Council approved a donation of $500 for the Pleasure Island Chamber of Commerce's 2014 Seafood, Blues and Jazz Festival. The donation is to come out of the Town's Parks and Recreation budget.
- Council requested to receive a copy of last year's Seafood Blues and Jazz Festival budget, including the revenue, from the Chamber.

PROJECTS

Dow Chemical Jetty

- Council directed Building Inspector Batson to meet with Town Attorney Canoutas and discuss wording that will go on bigger, double-sided caution signs that are to be erected on the beach at each end of the Dow Chemical Jetty, including one to face toward the dunes crossover and water. The signs are to be like the sign that is near the Kure Beach Fishing Pier. Funding for the signs will come out of the Shoreline Access, Beach Protection and Parking Committee's budget.

NO ACTION/FOLLOW UP/TABLED

- Commissioner Heglar and Town Clerk Avery will talk to Sunny Point authorities to find out the process the Town needs to follow to request a waiver of land lease fees until next year's budget cycle. They will update Council on their findings at the regular September Council meeting.
- Council requested Building Inspector Batson work with the Finance Officer and Town Clerk to revise certain permit fees and to present a revised fee schedule to them at the regular September Council meeting.
